THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a Government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a Republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principals of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

In essentials Unity; in non-essentials Liberty; in all things, Charity."

—RUPERTUS MELDENIUS.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream:
'Tis the Star-spangled Banner: O long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

O thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their lov'd homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with vic'try and peace, may the Heav'n rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

PLEDGE TO THE FLAG

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all."

GLORIOUS CALIFORNIA

(Prize Poem)

California. Thee we sing from our hearts thy praises spring.
Let the echoes wake and ring, Glorious California.
Beauteous land of hearts' desire, Sun is thy baptismal fire,
Softly singing winds thy choir, Glorious California.

Down the pageant of thy years, What a company appears,
Led by gallant cavaliers, Glorious California.
Saintly padres tread thy trails, Peace and brotherhood prevails,
Mission bell thy largess hails, Glorious California.

Pioneers carve roads to thee, Land of promise, fresh and free,
Tow'ring peaks and shining sea, Glorious California.
Argonauts sail to the shore, Searching for thy treasure store
Land of promises fulfilled, Glorious California.

Ours a godly heritage, Written on the fairest page,
Known to any race or age, Glorious California.
Ours to cherish as we build, Ours to thrill as they have thrilled,
Land of promises fulfilled, Glorious California.
